Luther College student recitals

Several Luther students will perform music recitals in March. A reception will follow each performance. Recitals and receptions are open to the public with no charge for admission. All recitals are held in the Noble Recital Hall in the Jenson-Noble Music Hall on the campus of Luther College unless otherwise noted.

Greg Schultz

Greg Schultz, a Luther College junior from Thompson, N.D., will perform a piano recital Saturday, Oct. 25 at 4 p.m.

Schultz, the son of Steve and Joan Schultz of Thompson, is majoring in music at Luther. He is a 2006 graduate of Red River High School.

Schultz will perform works by J.S. Bach, Franz Schubert and Alexander Scriabin.

Schultz is a student of Du Huang, Luther associate professor of music.

Brett Cooper

Brett Cooper, a Luther College senior from Marion, Iowa, will perform a saxophone recital Sunday, Oct. 26 at 2 p.m.

Cooper, the son of John and Brenda Cooper of Marion, is majoring in music at Luther. He is a 2005 graduate of Linn-Mar High School.

Cooper will perform works by J.S. Bach, Ludwig van Beethoven, Sergei Prokofiev and Peter Tchaikovsky.

Cooper is a student of John Strauss, Luther professor of music.
